See first and fourth pages.

The Church and the War

The mission on earth of the Church is Peace But it is peace founded on justice and right, not that purchased at the price of cowardice the loss of manliness and national self respect The true office of the Church is, as we understand it to throw its weight in favor of whatever elevates the race True religion makes men brave, patriotic willing to endure hardships and accept the labors incident to upholding in this world the rights of man and the principles of that gospel which first requires purity and then peace False religion in our opinion, counsels and courts peace at any sacrifice of principle and honor

In this day of our nation's trial, this direct collision between the institutions of freedom and civilization on one side, and a degree of despotism and a species of barbarism on the other, it is of infinite moment that the Church draws the sword and pronounces for the war as the only means of securing an abiding and worthy peace We especially rejoice to see this when such men as the traitorous Vallandingham—using language common to all the treasonable prints—says, ' The whole Church of the Prince of Peace is maddening and thirsting for blood—the blood of our brethren—preaching, praying, fighting '

The recent address of Bishop Burgess, of Maine, glows with that high Christian purpose, which has animated the Church in all ages, to stand up for truth and justice at whatever cost We extract the two concluding paragraphs of that address

"The mind is comforted only when it looks, first to the Eternal Hills whence cometh our help, and then, with profound humility, yet with pious gratitude, to the grand sight of a people united in one firm, religious purpose to defend, preserve and transmit, as is their bounden duty, under God, the costly inheritance in the enjoyment of which they have been so blessed beyond all nations However terrible the necessity, there was at last but one path that was not wrong

"As Christians we must not in act only honor and obey the civil authority, and render to Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's, but also must uphold with warm affection and steadfast allegiance of heart the safety of this great Christian republic Our Church has never been accustomed to seek a neutral ground when treason and revolt were on one side, and on the other was fidelity to rulers laws, oaths and the common rights of all human beings We must not say that our religion has no concern with things like these A religion which should permit its servants to look silently on while conspirators set fire to a magazine and after the explosion should bid them take tender care for the mangled limbs and dead bodies of the multitude of sufferers would be a heartless, miserable mockery It is a stronger duty to sustain our country now than it could be to rescue from its ruins such remains of peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety as might be left when privy conspiracy, sedition and rebellion should have fully done their work,"

Bishop Wittingham, of Maryland, in his pastoral letter in regard to the National Fast, made a religious duty of our allegiance to our Government, saying that, there can be no reasonable doubt in what direction our allegiance is solemnly pledged to the Searcher of hearts when we pray to Him to deliver us from sedition, privy conspiracy and rebellion ' And with all his tenderness to the sheep of his flock, a large number of the aristocratic portion of whom are notoriously traitors at heart if not in act, he warns them ' to take heed lest they be fostering in themselves a delusion, the not unguilty fruit of self abandonment to the trammels of party, and to the voluntary blindness of prejudice, nursed by pride of station, of influence and of connection "

That peace can now only come through a vigorous prosecution of the war, is forcibly maintained by the Pittsburgh Catholic, published under the superintendence of the Bishop of Pittsburgh, and edited by his Secretary, Dr Keogh

"We are in favor of peace, and a speedy peace, too, and therefore we desire to see the utmost activity in the prosecution of the war Peace can be secured only by the suppression of rebellion And a few victories like that of Fort Hatteras coupled with energetic measures similar to those adopted by General Fremont, will do more to bring back peace than all the peace meetings that might be held ever could do A peace thus gained would destroy forever the principles of secession which has given rise to the present unholy fratricidal rebellion It would secure permanent tranquility, and the majesty of the Constitution being vindicated the country would enter on a new era of prosperity and greatness These remarks furnish directly answer to the very shallow (to use a mild term) objection that has been urged against us, that because we are clergymen we should condemn the war which objection being interpreted into plain language means that because we are clergymen we should afford aid and comfort to a detestable rebellion or, in other words be traitors to our country The absurdity of the principle is so apparent that it needs no further refutation So far from being influenced by it we hold as certain the truth proclaimed by the venerable Bishop of Buffalo, that the North was obliged to maintain the Government against the attacks of the South and that it is a mercy to prosecute the war vigorously, and to strike decisive blows, thus to shorten the contest and hasten the return of peace "

Rev Dr Wayland in a publication says that ' the cause of the war is traced to a deplorable conspiracy which seeks the destruction of all free government and the establishment of a government in which all political power rests in the hands of the owners of slaves, in which the preaching of the gospel must be so modified and restricted as to utter no word in favor of down trodden humanity, and in which public education must be abandoned ' He says If we cannot maintain freedom here with a Bible in every house then it can be sustained nowhere In these circumstances, we feel the most solemn obligations to employ all the means in our power to resist this conspiracy and to resist it unto death praying still for our enemies, and humbling ourselves before God asking Him to remove this chastisement '

Such we believe to be the general voice of the Church, with a few insignificant exceptions it is for war until white robed Peace can come without dishonor and rebellion shall no more threaten the best interests of Christianity and humanity

General News

The Hartford Post says Mr Beecher, in his recent lecture in this city, made this remark 'Our country is now forced to fight Great Britain, morally with one hand, and hell broke loose down South, on the other '

Gov Ujhazi is in Washington with his family and several Hungarian followers He was cultivating vineyards in Texas when the rebellion broke out In consequence of loyalty to his adopted country he was driven off

It appears the Irish are deeply in sympathy with the Federal Government in her present emergencies They denounce the perfidy of England in her course upon American affairs

Some of the Canadian papers say there is a secret organization in the Provinces and that its objects are treasonable its members desire separation from England and the formation of an independent government or annexation to the United States

A St Louis correspondent writes to the Sacramento Union—"The statement that the President, on his own responsibility, erased certain obnoxious features in Cameron's report as premature and unwise, seems hardly credible, yet I have it on good authority that is true It would in such case, be Old Abe's report, and not the Secretary of War's—There is, however, in the aggregate sentiment of the Administration enough to show that the world moves, and that the minds of the American people are deliberately weighing slavery in the balance, and if either our Union or its ultimate restoration is at all jeopardized by its existence, as an institution fortified and conserved by laws and constitutional exactments, it will cease any longer to be respected or protected

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE COLUMBIA RIVER.—The steamer Cowlitz which left yesterday morning for Monticello was obliged to turn again last evening. Capt. H[illegible] informs us that he found [illegible] Willow bar. At this point [illegible] had closed the river through which [illegible] then way to the open water and so [illegible] within three miles of St. Helens when the river was again closed by ice. In attempting to cut their way through the ice [illegible] broke her rudder and was forced to put back.

Mr [illegible] Wells Fargo & Co's express man informs us that the river is closed between St. Helens and Rainier and that the steamer Multnomah is [illegible] at Astoria.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—No quorum being present last night the Board adjourned to Wednesday evening next. From Mr Daly, the secretary, we learn that there are now two hundred members belonging to the Portland Fire Department.

AMATEUR MUSICIANS.—Last night we visited the music rooms of Prof. Sedlak and found [illegible] number of young gentlemen of our acquaintance engaged in the practice of music on various instruments under the direction of the Professor. As far as we are able to judge the most of the scholars are already in a high state of proficiency. While the citizens of this place are at present without any public amusements we would suggest to the pupils under Mr Sedlak, to get up a Grand Concert at the Theatre some of these fine moon light nights.

THANKS.—We are indebted to S. J. McCormick, Esq. of the Franklin Bookstore for an assortment of late papers. We would also state that "Mac" has a good supply of comic and sentimental Valentines on hand. The 14th of February is near by.

MORE MAIL.—Another large mail arrived last evening from the South. By it we received the Sacramento Union of the 18th ult from which we take our States news.

The secession press seem very anxious to prove that the government has violated the Constitution in its efforts to put down the rebellion. It seems to be very positive upon this point. Jeff Davis is of the same opinion; and we should not be surprised to learn that Breckinridge holds the same sentiments. All traitors think it entirely unconstitutional to put down rebellion.

One of the secession editors thinks the present a capital time for the President to assume the imperial purple. Wonder if Ben Stark is not of the same opinion?

COST OF LIVING IN THE WEST.—From a letter written in Northern Illinois, dated December 8th we cull some interesting items in regard to the cost of living at this season. Flour of the best quality was retailing at $2 per hundred; fresh pork $3 do; beef $3 do; butter 12½c per lb, and a drug in the market; eggs, 10cts. per doz; fine turkeys three for a dollar; chickens 10cts each; wood, $2 50 per cord; kerosene oil, best quality 60cts. per gallon, and most of the necessaries of life in proportion. There had been no snow up to date. The weather was as pleasant as spring and frost had yet formed in the ground.—Call.

SOUTH CAROLINA CHIVALRY.—A letter from Hilton Head says—"As for the unanimity of the South the blacks declare that many of the whites who enlisted here in South Carolina were forced to do so; that some of the soldiers were brought to Fort Walker chained, refusing to fight, saying they had no cause to fight, no slaves to defend; among the handful of prisoners taken, one has already petitioned to be allowed to take the oath of allegiance and go North—while several others admit that they had no interest in the quarrel with the North; two say they were told if they did not volunteer they would be drafted, and so they volunteered.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED AND PROMOTED.—Lieut Robert N. Scott, U. S. A., son of Rev. Dr. Scott late of this city, whose arrest on the charge of treason against his government was recently published, has been tried and acquitted. The finding of the court was approved by the President and the young officer promoted to the captaincy of his company, and he has taken his place in charge of an important post in the line of the Army of the Potomac.

Personal Friend.—"I say, Jones, how is it that your wife dresses so magnificently, and you always appear out at the elbow?"

Jones.—"You see Thompson my wife dresses according to the Gazette of Fashion, and I dress according to my ledger."

Agency Notice.—Mr L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements and transact business for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. Office—No 1 1½ Washington street nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

PRENTICE ANA—The Charleston Courier says that the deep shadow resting upon the soil of Kentucky must be removed. Undoubtedly the ugly shadows cast upon her by the invading armies from the South must be removed right speedily.

The man, who when his state is invaded, does not feel his soul rise in arms against the invaders is a recreant and a traitor. And if a man's soul does rise in arms against the invaders, his body had better keep it company.

A government is entitled to [illegible] when in time of war, those who hold [illegible] substance and life to its support [illegible] to see how much money they can make out of it on account of its troubles.

The people of all the Atlantic cities in the South refuse to pay their Northern debts. Well, they may probably find, when the [illegible] fleet gets down there, that if they won't shell out, they will be shelled out.

Fellow Kentuckians, the glorious old flag of our country floated over our cradles. Shall any other float over our graves?

The tree of a good man's life has its birds and blossoms and music and perfume among its boughs.

The discharge of duty at this time involves the discharge of cannon, rifles and muskets.

When two [illegible] tell us all for pistols and coffee they are quite as apt to settle [illegible] their coffee as [illegible]

The young Kentuckian who will not now fight for his state and his country is not fit to woo the daughters of a man, nor yet those of a woman—let him dress in bloomer.

Of all Diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or mineral substances. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and perfect cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—the majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, [illegible]

All business strictly confidential. [illegible] DR L J CZAPKAY, M D [illegible] Office, San Francisco.
